VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1867. NO. 105.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the New Orleans Crescent.

GEN. HANCOCK AND THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

It is not without a feeling of sadness that we sincerely participate in the general exultation of our people at the announcement by Gen. Hancock of the principles upon which he intends to conduct his administration as commander of the Fifth Military District. That men whose characters and habits have been formed amid the traditions of American liberty should await with bated breath, and in anxious suspense, the advent of a new military rule, is a spectacle of which a parallel may be found only in the most dismal days of the Roman empire when the fate of individuals and of communities was at the mercy of a central despot or of provincial autocrats who knew no law but that of organized brute force.—It is quite true that the bearing and the language of the present commander justify the unusual access of joy which they have caused our citizens to experience. But this joy is a more eloquent commentary than grief would have been, on the gloom and the horror of the preceding situation.—General Hancock promises nothing in our behalf, but to leave us to the quiet enjoyment of our civil rights. He merely assures us that he will aim to rule over a peaceful population by peaceful methods. It is only by contrast that we can realize the significance in the present conjuncture of such an announcement. And viewed in this light it has an emphasis and an import of which there is no example in official declarations by either civil or military representatives of federal authority since the close of the late war.

The predecessors of General Hancock, whether regular or temporary, have entered upon their posts in the truculent manner of penal executioners. They came with an undisguised predisposition against us; a predisposition that grew stronger and became remorseless in the course of their systematic outrage to the sentiments and interests of an unfortunate and helpless community. Their scowls and threats failed to extort sycophantic smiles and fawning servility. They found us abject, but they could not make us abject. They ended, as was natural, by hating in the fullness of their circumscribed souls those whom they had wantonly injured and insulted, but could not abase.

But it was impossible for the policy of the commanders referred to, however fairly disposed they may have been, to be consistent with reason and justice, when their theory was radically at variance with fact. It became a maxim with General Sheridan, for instance, that the war was not over, notwithstanding the utter dissipation of the military power of the South, and the implicit submission of her people to federal authority, from the Potomac to the Rio Grande. Other commanders caught the radical fashion of regarding the rebellion as politically and morally still alive and formidable; and they were eager to illustrate this fashion by dragooning the whites of the South into an orthodox state of mind according to the radical standard of loyalty. They forgot that, under this test of loyalty, there were more rebels and traitors in the North than in the South, and that New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Ohio where dissent from radical politics was rank and preponderant, called for the trenchant work of military reconstructors not less than Louisiana, Mississippi or Alabama. They forgot—it is to be hoped that they did, at least, for the sake of military discipline—that under the same test, their commander-in-chief, President Andrew Johnson, was more demonstratively rebellious than Jefferson Davis or Robert E. Lee.

Gen. Hancock lays down a theory, the reverse of that upon which the foregoing remarks animadvert. He does so in language that bespeaks the intrepid frankness of the soldier, the solicitude of a true patriot, and the calm and comprehensive view of the statesman. He broadly announces that peace and quiet reign through the whole extent of his jurisdiction. As regards the so-called "rebel" and "unreconstructed" population, this fact has been patent to candid observation ever since the Confederacy perished in battle and was buried in its bloody shroud. But no other commander appointed under the military reconstruction law has seen fit to make such an announcement. And, indeed, the law itself is based on the assumption that peace does not reign in the South, but that, as a moral and political fact, rebellion still unfurls its banner there. It is clear that this narrow and sombre partisan suspicion has no lodgment in the mind of Gen. Hancock. He does not conceive that it is now the mission of the military power, after every form of armed resistance to the authority of the federal government has been destroyed, to make itself the instrument for inflicting political death on a people. "When insurrectionary force," he says, "has been overthrown, and peace established, and the civil authorities are ready and willing to perform their duties, the military power should cease to lead, and the civil administration resume its natural and rightful dominion. Solemnly impressed with these views, the general announces that the great principles of American liberty still are the lawful inheritance of this people, and ever should be. The right of trial by jury, the habeas corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of speech and the natural rights of persons and the rights of property must be preserved. Free institutions, while they are essential to the prosperity and happiness of the people, always furnish the strongest inducements to peace and order."

Those are remarkable and memorable words. The last sentence, especially, contains an idea which is in signal opposition to that development of radical politics which seeks the guarantees of further peace in the South in the denial of the benefit of free institutions to the most intelligent and spirited portion of the population. In short, the declarations of Gen. Hancock repudiate in effect all the assumptions and all the policies which took legislative expression in the military reconstruction law; but this is done without trenching upon his official obedience to the terms of the law. It would be, therefore, hardly too much to say that, as the law is represented by Gen. Hancock, its logical falsehood and its despotic and unwholesome spirit are dead, and that nothing remains of it but its literal mechanism, which must continue to operate until it is repealed in the "sober second thought" of Congress, or worn out by friction.

For the rest, it would not be, let us trust, an exaggeration of hope, to regard this commander's advent as one of the tokens of the commencement of a new and better era. At all events, he lets in some gleams of light where gloom was before constantly deepening. Would it be over-sanguine to see in this light the dawn of the perfect day?

The relations of our citizens to the new commander cannot be mistaken. He evidently desires no partisan approaches by individuals or delegations, but our citizens have no reason to abstain from frankly approaching him with reference to all matters that may come legitimately under his official consideration. He has recognized them as inheritors with himself of a joint stock of indefeasible liberties, and they should in every proper way testify that they appreciate the singular independence and loftiness which he has displayed in extending this recognition.

Valuable Property For Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST executed to me, by the late Wm. F. Collins, I will sell, on Monday, the 13th day of January, 1868, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Warrenton, the following valuable property:

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jas. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables, &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

Terms made known on day of sale.

MARY COLLINS, Trustee.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
WARREN COUNTY.
In Equity—Fall Term, 1867.

Thomas L. Jones and others,
Ex parte.

By virtue of a decree made in the above cause, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall offer for sale at public Auction, at the Court House door in Warrenton, on the 1st day of January next, a certain tract of Land belonging to the estate of the late Alexander S. Jones, deceased, adjoining the lands of Wm. K Kearney, J. M. Heck, Dr. Geo. Field and Mrs. Mary E. Williams, and containing about two thousand one hundred and seventy-six acres.

The tract of Land is believed to be a superior one, is situated in a healthy and very good neighborhood and is very convenient to Market. The tract will be divided into several tracts for the convenience of purchasers, and plots and surveys will be ready on the day of sale. The sale will be made for cash, as to one-fourth of the purchase money; and on a credit of one and two years, with interest from date, as to the residue, and the purchasers will be required to give bond with approved security. No title will be made until after the payment of the whole of the purchase money, as is usual in all sales under decrees of Courts of Equity.

RALEIGH AND GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA,
WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

DIVISION OF LABOR.

Should cotton cease to be, in the South, the great article of produce, as we judge it will, at no distant day, it will become necessary, in order to support our present population and open up employments for new comers, to introduce new vocations or new articles of production.

We are satisfied, that, in order to secure recuperation and progress, too many of our population rely upon agriculture. In all countries, it is necessary that the bulk of the population should be agriculturalists, yet the introduction of improved systems of farming and improved implements, will greatly reduce the necessity of employing so large a portion of the people in farming operations. Properly regulated, the population devoted to field or out door work would divide off in labor for the farm, the vineyard, the fruitery or orchard, and the market garden. To have this done well, it would be better that one set of hands be devoted entirely to each one of these employments. Combining them, as is frequently done in the South, injures the whole.

But besides the division of labor on work heretofore classed with agriculture, it is necessary that a larger portion of our population, than at present, should be engaged in mining and manufacturing. Merchandise is overdone. We have by large odds too many merchants and tradesmen and too few producers. Hence we buy more than we sell, or, at least, more than is prudent.

There is no article which we consume so much of, that we could supply from our own labor, so easily, perhaps, as the article of boots and shoes. Almost all the Northern and Eastern States are employed in making boots and shoes for North Carolina and the South. Not only is there a large number of men and women employed in this manufacture, but a large amount of capital is also invested in it. We ought to have several large factories in the State for the manufacture of these articles. The facilities for the manufacture of leather are good, and we cannot see why the wants of our State in this regard cannot be fully supplied at home.

This remark equally applies to the manufacture of furniture, agricultural implements, and the ordinary articles of hardware. Indeed, all articles of merchandise of heavy freight, and those, especially, manufactured from raw material, produced here in abundance, ought by all means to be produced in the State.

Cotton factories in this State, as a general rule, have never been as profitable as they ought to have been. The defect has been in the machinery employed and the neglect to make fine cloths, prints, ginghams, &c. The multiplication of factories for the production of medium fabrics is loudly called for in the South, as a means of encouraging the culture at least of the better grades of cotton.

WERE IT NOT FOR the promise held out by the reaction which is progressing at the North, and which is destined to go on until every vestige of Radical iniquity is swept from existence, the condition of the South would be deplorable beyond description.—It is bad and disastrous enough as it is. The prospect of having to pass, even temporarily, under the rule of a mongrel and malevolent horde of ignorant and depraved creatures, is sufficient to prostrate energy, discourage enterprize, and fill the community with hopelessness and well-nigh despair. It is having this effect. It is seen in the scarcity of money, the unreliability of labor, the general want of confidence, and in universal depression.

Our counsel to the people is to pluck up hope. So far as North Carolina is concerned, we believe that if an offensive and proscriptive Constitution is framed by the coming Convention, it can be defeated at the polls, even in the face of the threatened supplementary legislation of Congress that a majority of the votes cast, only, shall be necessary to its ratification. At least, it can be done, if the white people of North Carolina will throw off the apathy and indifference, which they so lamentably exhibited in the late election.

Even if this could not be done, we confess that, though the temporary suffering and humiliation would be great indeed, we have no objection to seeing the Radical anarchists, in their Conventions, push the practical application of their doctrines to extremes. The Alabama Convention, with its crazy orgies, has been a powerful auxiliary of Conservatism. It has had a tremendous effect in stimulating to a more rapid development that horror of negroism which is the rising sentiment at the North. Let them go on,—give them rope enough, and they will hang themselves inevitably.

RADICAL CAUCAS.—A secret Radical meeting is announced to be held this evening. The object is not stated, but it is supposed to be in reference to municipal matters. We shall know, in good time, what these men are after. Like their sable brethren in the Louisiana Convention, they are doubtless in pursuit of the spoils,—the perquisites of place. Their gauge of loyalty is that which pays best.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the ablest Republican paper in New England, if not in the Union, in an article on the folly of proscription in the Southern States, says that "to say this policy will not do, and must be stopped, is to state the case very mildly. Congress and the Republican party cannot allow it to proceed without certain and deserved ruin."

RADICAL SCHEMES.

At a recent meeting of the Radical Executive Committee, held at Washington, it was made to appear that $40,000 had been already expended in the South in the work of "reconstruction." It was stated that the Radical cause had been greatly promoted by information obtained through the medium of the Freedmen's Bureau, and the Northern Methodist and Baptist Churches planted in the South. Gen. Schenck, especially, acknowledged the aid received through these sources.

No doubt, therefore, can longer exist, that the Freedmen's Bureau, and the Churches, South, that are being supplied with Northern preachers, white or black, are used as political engines, not simply for the benefit, physically and religiously, of the blacks, but to Radicalize and Africanize the Southern States!

It was agreed that $50,000 should be raised, if necessary, to send Radical speakers into the South, to secure the ratification of the Constitutions which may be framed by the Conventions which may be held.

What a spectacle would such a proceeding present to the eyes of those pure men who have passed away, who labored for the establishment of the government and the preservation of Constitutional liberty! Could the great statesmen of the country, North and South, who have passed from time, look down upon the scenes we now witness, how they would cover their faces in shame and disgust!

LIKE A FLOCK of buzzards gathering about a carcass, the black-birds of the Louisiana Radical Convention have lit upon the Treasury of that State and are gorging themselves gloriously. It appears that they have not only voted themselves, as a compensation for their patriotic labors, the modest sum of ten dollars per day, but they have resolved that it shall date back to the period of their election. Having done this much, the next step in order will be to continue their pay indefinitely,—or, at least, until "reconstruction" shall be accomplished. In which event, of course, it will be to the manifest interest of these sooty statesmen to postpone that consummation as long as possible. Ten dollars a day for the simple and easy work of making a Constitution is much better than shaving or blacking boots at ten cents a job, or working on the cotton and sugar plantations at ten or fifteen dollars a month. Ten dollars a day, and old clothes supplied by the Freedmen's Bureau! Just think of that.

THE MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY.

FRANKFORT, KY., December 4.—Governor Stevenson sent his annual message to the Legislature yesterday. He refers at length to State affairs, and then proceeds to discuss national politics and to oppose the reconstruction policy of Congress. Let it be known, he says, that we do not desire to re-establish slavery, that we have no hostility to the black race, but are concerned for the preservation of our own. Above all, let our brethren throughout the Union know that the people of Kentucky are united, and they present for the conjoint action of the people of all the States a platform of principles which every true man who loves his country can warmly and thoroughly endorse. The fundamental truths are the supremacy of the Constitution and laws of the United States within their allotted spheres; the inviolability and perpetuity of the Union under the Constitution. The incompetency of a State or of the Federal Government to impair the integrity of the Union by secession on the one hand or exclusion on the other. The perfect equality among all States under the Constitution, the exclusive right of each State to regulate its domestic and internal affairs, subject only to such special exceptions as the Constitution itself has established, the right of each State to regulate suffrage.

"A GENTLEMAN AND A CHRISTIAN."—Taken in the proper acceptance of the term, no higher eulogy can be pronounced on mortal man, than to describe him as "a gentleman and a christian." But it would be unsafe to assume that all men attach the same meaning to these expressions, or recognize thereby a standard of excellence attainable but by few. Some allowance must be made in weighing the expression quoted, for the individual idiosyncracies and natural obtuseness of moral faculties, in the individual who employs them.

Thus when Forney of the Chronicle characterizes Hunnicutt as a "gentleman and a christian," it would be erroneous to assume that the "delectable cuss" really fills the standard implied by the terms, but simply that Hunnicutt comes up to Forney's standard of "a gentleman and a christian." It may excite surprise that one who diurnally defiles the air of heaven with blasphemous maledictions, should be designated as a "christian," or that he who consorts only with negroes and uses all his powers to inflame that race to deeds of rapine and incendiary violence, should be characterized as "a gentleman," but the surprise ceases when we reflect that terms are used by one to whom mendacity has become a second nature, and who stands before the world as the self-convicted suborner of witnesses and the base traducer of female innocence.—Lynchburg News.

HABEAS CORPUS.—Judge Little had before him, on last Saturday, in chambers, at this place, a case on a writ of habeas corpus, the points of which are these: A young man named Dunn, during the first part of last week, had carried off and married, in South Carolina, a daughter of Jas. S. Marsh, of Union county, of this State, without her parent's consent, said daughter being barely thirteen years of age. The daughter not having attained marriageable age, according to the laws of the State, which is fourteen years, upon a partial hearing of the case and showing of the facts, the Judge returned the child to the custody of her parents until the 30th of this month, when there will be a full and final hearing.—Wadesboro' Argus.

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—A special dispatch to the Herald from Nashville, dated yesterday, states that Gov. Brownlow has published a card, in which he gives a flat denial to the testimony of Detective Baker before the Impeachment Committee, wherein Gov. Brownlow is said to have been cognizant of a letter written by Andrew Johnson to Jefferson Davis.

The Governor further says that he does not believe Mr. Johnson ever wrote a letter to Mr. Davis, or any other man, giving aid and comfort to the rebellion.

Milwaukee has officially decided the value of a man's beard. In a fight a ruffian pulled out a man's beard and the court awarded him $15 damages.

The Munich (Conn.) Bulletin says that the largest cotton manufactory in the world is building at Tuftsville, near that place.

IMPORTANT MILITARY ORDER.

Gen. Canby has just issued the following order, which is important to be observed in this State. The meaning and intent of the Amnesty Act passed by our Legislature are so plain, we are surprized that any necessity should exist for litigation or for this military order in that respect. It was the evident purpose of the Legislature to extend immunity to all persons, whether connected with the Federal or Confederate service.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
Charleston, S. C., Nov. 27, '67.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 134.

I. It appearing that prosecutions have been instituted in some of the Courts of North Carolina for acts of war committed during the existence of hostilities for the suppression of the rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and contrary to the intent and meaning of the Act of the General Assembly of that State, ratified on the 22d day of December, 1866, and entitled "An Act granting a general amnesty and pardon to all officers and soldiers of the State of North Carolina, or of the late Confederate States armies, or of the United States, for offences committed against the criminal laws of the State of North Carolina," [see public laws of North Carolina, 1866–'67, p. 6]:

It is ordered:

First, That the provisions of the first section of the Act aforesaid shall be held to apply to all persons in the civil or military service of the United States, as fully and completely as by its terms it does apply to persons in the civil or military service of the State of North Carolina or of the late Confederate States during the late rebellion; and that it shall be taken and held to be the true intent and meaning of the said first section, that no such person "shall be held to answer on any indictment for any acts done in the discharge of any duties imposed on him, purporting to be by a law of" [the United States] "the State or late Confederate States government, or by virtue of any order emanating from any officer, commissioned or non commissioned, of the militia or home guard or local police of North Carolina, or any officer, commissioned or non-commissioned, of the late Confederate States government, or any officer, commissioned or non-commissioned, of the United States government." And that in all cases where proceedings have been commenced against any person or persons contrary to the true intent and meaning of the aforesaid section, such persons shall not be taxed with the payment of any costs that may have accrued subsequent to the ratification of the aforesaid law.

Second, That it be taken and held to be the true intent and meaning of the several sections of the aforecited Act, "that in all cases where indictments are now pending" [or may hereafter be found] "either in the County or Superior Courts, if the defendant can show that he was an officer or private in any of the above named organizations" (or in any way in the civil or military service of the United States) "at the time, it shall be presumed that he acted under orders, till the contrary shall be made to appear."

Third, That it be taken and held to be the true intent and meaning of the third section of the aforecited Act, "that all private citizens who, on account of age or from any other cause, were exempt from service in any or all of the above named organizations, for the preservation of their lives or property or for the protection of their families associated themselves together for the preservation of law and order in their respective Counties and Districts," (or who adhered to the Union and resisted rebellion, in obedience to the paramount authority and laws of the United States,) "shall be entitled to all the benefits and provisions of this Act." And none of the provisions of the Act of the Provisional Congress, approved the 8th day of August, 1861, nor of any of the Acts supplementary thereto, nor of any other law of the Confederate States, nor of the State of North Carolina, shall be held to abrogate or impair any right of citizenship by reason of not yielding and acknowledging allegiance to the Confederate States.

Fourth, That it shall be taken and held to be the true intent and meaning of the fourth section of the aforecited Act, "that no person who may have been in the civil or military service of the State or late Confederate States government, * * in either of the above named organizations, or in the service of the United States government, * * shall be held liable in any civil action for any act done in the discharge of any duty imposed upon him by any law or authority purporting to be a law of the" [United States,] "the State or late Confederate States government."

Nothing in the provisions of the law above cited or in this order shall be held to apply to any crime or offence coming within the cognizance or jurisdiction of the civil courts of the United States.

II. Upon representation that improper and unfair advantages have been taken of the provisions of the seventh section of the Act of the General Assembly of North Carolina, ratified on the 10th day of March, 1866, and entitled "An Act concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood" [see public laws of North Carolina, 1866, chap. 40, § 7, p. 101]:

It is ordered:

That all parole "contracts between any persons whatever, whereof one or more of them shall be a person of color," shall be of the same validity, be established by the same evidence, be determined by the same rules, and be enforced in the same manner as in like contracts where all the parties thereto are whites.

By command of B'vt Maj. Gen. Ed. R. S. Canby:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aid-de Camp, Act'g Ass't Adj't Gen.

WHAT THEY PROPOSE.

That our readers may see what kind of legislation is to be expected from Radical Conventions, we give below what is proposed by the Alabama Convention:

1. To give the political power of Alabama into the control of negroes.

2. To surrender the municipal government of the richest Counties of the State to negroes.

3 To establish public schools in which white and negro children must sit side by side.

4. To exclude from the polls forty thousand of our best white citizens.

5. To permit no white man to vote unless he swears never to change the basis of suffrage, whatever calamities the proposed basis of suffrage may bring upon the people.

7. To establish a militia system by which one tenth of the people shall rule nine-tenths by violence.

The following entry appears among the proceedings of the Alabama Constitutional Convention, on the 5th. ult:

"Mr. Strange, of Macon, offered an ordinance, but the Clerks could not read it, neither could Mr. Strange himself. The ordinance was disposed of some how or other."

This is by no means a strange circumstance, for, as Vance said, these fellows are nearly all men of mark, as they can't write. Norfolk Virginian.

From the Register.

"WE MUST FIGHT."

We published, two weeks since, some "choice extracts" from the Standard. We this week re-publish an article from the Standard of April 24 1861, which proves conclusively that W W. Holden was never a Secessionist, but that he always was, as he now claims to have been, a true Union man. The reader will observe that the article appeared about one month previous to the passage of the Ordinance of Secession, and no doubt had great influence in bringing about the result. Mr. Holden signed the Ordinance of Secession; was Rebel State printer several years during the war; now claims to be the leader of the Republican party, and is understood to be a candidate for the United States Senate. Our readers will no doubt agree with us that it is an appointment eminently fit to be made:

"The proclamation of Mr. Lincoln has left to the people of the border States no alternative but resistance or unconditional submission. The Southern man who would quietly submit to the doctrines enunciated in that document, is fit only for a slave. We do not go behind that document, and it is not our purpose to go behind it as long as this war shall last. We have labored for peace on honorable terms,—we would hail it now, on honorable terms, with profound satisfaction; but, much as we deprecate war, war must be encountered, and must be continued as long as the foot of a federal soldier rests on our soil.

It is true, the odds appear to be against us. The army and navy are in the hands of the old federal government. That government, too, has a name among the nations. It has the command of more ready means for offensive purposes in the way of money, men and arms than the South has; and the non-slaveholding States which uphold it have a common head around which to rally in their onset on the South. The latter section has but a small army—indeed, no regular army—and it has no navy. It has one government of seven States unrecognized among the nations, and eight separate State governments making common cause with the former. But though the odds are against us, they are not near so great as between England and the colonies. The slaveholding States can bring into the field one million of fighting men, as brave as ever charged bayonet or drew sword. These men can be supported by those who remain at home, and by the labor of our slaves. The Southern support and line within itself. It can furnish itself with every article necessary for subsistence, and if wants no luxuries at a time like this. In addition to this, our people will fight for constitutional liberty against arbitrary power—for their homes and hearthstones, and, it may be, for existence. Such a people cannot be conquered. They may be overrun—their country may be laid waste, and their blood may flow like water, but they can no more be "subjugated" than the winds or the sea.

People of North Carolina! a call has been made for volunteers. Virginia and Maryland are encountering the first burst of the storm. Their people are roused and ready for action, but they must have aid. If we would keep the battle from our own doors, we must unite with Virginia, Maryland, Kentucky and Tennessee in offensive operations. A united and vigorous demonstration may lead to an honorable peace, but, failing in that, will place us in line with an adequate force to sustain our sister States. The Confederate States will perform their whole duty. The legions that conquered at Buena Vista, Cerro Gordo, Contreras and Churubusco, will soon turn their faces northward to unite their efforts with their allies of the border States. The constituted authorities of the State have called; let our citizen soldiery answer. They will! One heretofore for peace and the Union comes forward to say to you that this is a just and honorable war. It has been forced upon us. We must fight! Prove yourselves worthy of those who fought and fell at the Alamance and King's Mountain, and of those who, surviving, toiled and suffered through a seven years' war. Fanaticism and unjust power are on one side, "God and our native land" are on the other. And may He who rules in the armies of heaven, and who disposes of men and nations, nerve every arm for the battle and give victory to those who are struggling for all they hold dear!"

A PICTURE OF THE AWFUL CONDITION OF THE SOUTH—WHAT RADICALISM HAS DONE.

From the Memphis Avalanche.

One of the editors of this paper has spent the last three weeks in Arkansas, and has seen, from personal observation, the distressed condition of the country. The reports which have reached this city have not been exaggerated. Indeed, the condition of the country is worse than represented. Gloom and despair pervade the minds of the entire farming population. The losses of those engaged in the culture of cotton will be enormous. But few will pay expenses. The losses this year are much larger than those of last year. Planters are rapidly paying off and discharging their hands, being unable to feed them longer. The negro is completely demoralized. Most of them have largely overdrawn their wages, and having learned this fact, many of them have abandoned their employers, leaving the cotton still unpicked, and the result is planters are compelled to employ others to pick out their cotton, for which labor they have already paid. As so many planters will refuse to raise cotton next year, thousands of negroes will be thrown out of employment, and they will be forced to live by a regular system of pilfering and robbery. They have already commenced killing stock, stealing horses, ploughs and harness, with a view of setting up for themselves next year. Game is abundant in Arkansas, and most of those who have abandoned their employers are living by hunting and fishing. All of them have either a repeater or a gun, or both; but their great trouble seems to be in purchasing caps, powder, and shot. Those who have stock, or anything to steal, live in constant dread. The same state of affairs exist throughout the Southern States. What we saw and heard in Arkansas can be seen in every section of the South.

COTTON THIEF—A LOYAL POLL HOLDER IN TROUBLE.—N. B. Yearger, a Loyal Leaguer and Loyal Poll Holder at the late election "so-called," at the Goldsboro' box, was carried before Jno C. Slocumb, Esq., on Wednesday last, charged with stealing a bale of cotton from Mr. Wm. Waters, of Lenoir county, on the night previous. The evidence against him was substantially as follows: On Tuesday he borrowed from a citizen a horse and cart, and was absent with it all that night. Waters missing his cotton, followed cart-tracks to Goldsboro', and in making enquiry among our cotton buyers, ascertained from Mr. A. Day that he had purchased that morning a single bale from a man who gave his name as Martin. The cotton was examined and identified, and a warrant taken out for the arrest of the thief, who was soon overhauled by Deputy Wood, when, lo, and behold, the thief turns out to be N. B. Yearger, one of the Loyal Poll Holders at the Goldsboro' box! The question naturally presses upon us: "Is a man too good to stuff a ballot box, who will steal a bag of cotton?" We, however, don't intend to ask the question.—Golds. News.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.
PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as THE KEOCO MILLS,
consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.
The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 500 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.
The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a farm road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary out-houses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.
A LARGE AND CONVENIENT DWELLING,
The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.
TERMS OF SALE:
One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, one dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have used it in several cases of Scrofula and Secondary Affections, &c., with decided satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a speedy and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no scruples in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofula
White Swelling.
HOME CERTIFICATE.
I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—(one tumor reached a large size.) The swelling of the knee was enormous, and accompanied with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. It became so restless, and they failed to give me relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took out of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, and Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.
I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles, having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for seven months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stage, can be Cured.
BALTIMORE, MD., March 4th, 1867.
Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your 'Rosadalis.' I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night. At last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength; her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!
DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:
My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and burning was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding

AN UNUSUAL number of important news items and a variety of selections amply supply the lack of editorial matter, this morning.

THE MAILS.—We regret to be obliged to allude to the frequent complaints which reach us of the failure of the Sentinel to reach our subscribers. The times are terribly out of joint, we know, but we see no good reason why the mails should continue to be so.

Besides this, we make an appeal to Dr. Jobe, in behalf of the people of Chatham, whose mail facilities have been poorer than almost any we wot of.

We beg to refer all concerned to the following letter from Pittsboro', dated the 7th inst., setting forth the grievances under which the people labor:

"You will greatly oblige the citizens of this community by calling the attention of the proper authorities to the terrible condition of our mails. Before and since the war, until the 1st of July last, this place was supplied with a regular mail from Morrisville, our "port of entry," if we may so term it, but this route was stopped on July 1st, and since then we have been the victims of "bad mails" which at last have become insupportable, and we wish the authorities to correct our abuses and wrongs. We are supplied (so called) with a horse-mail from Haywood, but the Agents along the Railroad still send our papers &c., to Morrisville and Greensboro, and the result is we very seldom get any mail, and then when it does come the papers from Raleigh even, distant only 32 miles, are ten (10) days old! As I very seldom received your "Daily," I changed it to the "Semi-Weekly," but still I am deprived the pleasure of perusing its entertaining columns, until all the news is stale and uninteresting. Such is the case with all of us. There are two Post Offices between here and Morrisville deprived of all mail facilities whatever, since that route was stopped. I refer to "Green Level" and "The Grove."

We wish to have a line from Morrisville (our nearest depot on the railroad, and through which we correspond with the outer world,) to this place, thus supplying not only Pittsboro', but "the Grove" and Green Level, as has always been done before. Request the Agents along the railroad to send our mail matter via Carey's and Haywood, instead of via Greensboro'.

[From the New Orleans Crescent.]

SOUTHERN PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT.

If the United States Congress take heed of the popular voice in time, we may be saved from much suffering. Acting on this belief a number of gentlemen of both sections of have agreed to suggest the presentation monster memorials to Congress and the President, asking that the policy of the country may be immediately conformed to the actual needs of the situation and to the expressed demands of public opinion.

Below will be found this memorial, which has been prepared and recommended to the Southern people with this view. We would request our readers to bestow their earnest attention upon it. We believe they will agree with us in the conclusion that this movement, if it become general, may do much good. Even if Congress refuse to modify its policy, the fact of refusal, in the face of an overwhelming expression of opinion from both sections of the country, will place it still more decidedly in the wrong and strengthen the hands of that great party which is to be charged with the final solution and settlement of those momentous problems:

To his Excellency the President and the Senators and Representatives of the U. S. Congress.

The undersigned, citizens of the State of Louisiana, respectfully represent that the political developments of the past few months have demonstrated the fact that the Reconstruction acts of Congress will, if persisted in, produce a conflict of races which will result in the desolation of the country, and the serious if not irreparable injury of both races in the Southern States.

That the negroes of this State are organized into secret bands termed "loyal leagues," sworn and combined against their former owners and citizens of the State, in order to obtain control of the government.

That this credulous race has been deluded by designing men into the belief that the property of the white citizens of the State will be divided amongst them.

That, under these demoralizing influences, they are daily refusing to fulfill their contracts, or labor for the support of themselves and their families.

That, in consequence of this demoralization, planting in this State has resulted in the ruinous failure of a large majority of our planters, and, of course, in the necessity of its abandonment.

That, before the close of the present year, the negroes, with but few exceptions, will have consumed or wasted all their wages, or share of the crop, and be destitute of the means of subsistance.

That the white race will be compelled to limit their planting to the labor of their own families, while the negroes will not have the means, if they had the capacity, to plant on their own account.

Under these circumstances, famine, with all its attendant horrors, must soon come upon this improvident race.

In view of these impending calamities, the undersigned would earnestly appeal to the President and Congress to give prompt attention to this vitally important matter and provide immediately such remedy as in their wisdom can be devised, to avert the ruin which, unless arrested, must speedily come upon us.

ANOTHER ORDER FROM GENERAL HANCOCK.

NEW ORLEANS, December 5.—In special order No. 293, issued to day, General Hancock says:

The true and proper use of military power, besides defending the national honor against foreign nations, is to uphold the laws and civil government and to secure to every person residing among us the enjoyment of life, liberty and property. It is accordingly made by act of Congress the duty of the commander of this district to protect all persons in these rights, to suppress disorders and violence and to punish, or cause to be punished, all disturbers of the public peace and criminals.

The Commanding General has been officially informed that the administration of justice, and especially of criminal justice, in the Courts, is clogged, if not entirely frustrated, by the enforcement of paragraph two of the order issued from these headquarters August 24th, 1867, relative to the qualifications of persons to be placed on the jury lists of this State, to determine who shall and who shall not be jurors. * * *

It is deemed best to carry out the will of the people expressed by their last legislature upon this subject. The qualification of a juror under the law is a proper subject for the decision of the courts. The commanding General, in discharge of the trust reposed in him, will maintain the just power of the judiciary, and is unwilling to permit the civil authorities and laws to be embarrassed by military interference.

Paragraph two alluded to is revoked, and trial by jury will be hereafter regulated by the Constitution and civil laws.

The paragraph revoked excluded all citizens from juries who were not registered voters.

The Grant meeting at Cooper Institute, last evening, was large in point of numbers, and enthusiastic in temper whenever the name of the hero of the occasion was mentioned. The political allusions of the speakers were received coldly, and there was a strong disposition to resent the attempt of Gen. Sickles and Mr. Tremaine to give a Radical twist to the proceedings. Mr. A. T. Stewart presided, and among the list of Vice Presidents will be found the names of some of the most solid and best known of our citizens. The platform, however, was filled with old broken-down political hacks. —N. Y. World 5th.

Sheridan arrived in Chicago on Monday night, but nobody turned out to cheer him. He had telegraphed that he was coming but the dispatch was mislaid.

Immense desposits of valuable phosphates, said to be superior to Peruvian guano, and of incalculable value, have been discovered on the banks of the Ashley river, near Charleston, S. C.

$50 Reward.

ON SATURDAY NIGHT LAST my Horse was stolen from my premises, in Sampson County. The horse is dark-colored somewhat inclined to gray; a small spot on each side of his back, nearly white, caused probably by the saddle; a little white on one of the hind feet, near the hoof. He was four years old last Spring, and is good sized, though slim-built, and not in very good order.

I have reason to believe that the horse was stolen by a black man formerly in my employ. He is slim built with very suspicious looking eyes, about five feet ten inches high, wore a drab-colored, slouched hat, a light colored sack coat, rather short, with pants of the same color and much worn.

I will pay a reward of Twenty-five dollars for the recovery of the horse, or fifty dollars for his recovery and sufficient evidence to convict the thief. ERASMUS B. LEE.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7, P. M.

The repeal of the cotton tax was before the Senate Finance Committee, where it meets with opposition.

Gen. Sherman has arrived. He has visited the President and Gen. Grant, and remains here three months.

Revenue to-day $500,000.

The debt, bearing coin interest has increased $62,000,000, bearing currency interest decreased $47,000,000; matured debt, not presented, decreased $4,000,000; bearing no interest increased $3,000,000, making an increase in the debt of $13,879,000. The coin in the Treasury has decreased $849,000. The currency has increased $15,000,000. Making a nett increase of the debt $9,701,000.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7—P. M

House.—The impeachment question was resumed, with filibustering, lead by Logan.

Finally, Mr. Wilson withdrew his motion to table, and the vote was taken on the majority resolution ordering impeachment, which was lost by 57 to 108. Absent 31.

A motion to reconsider, and to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, prevailed, and thus impeachment ends.

A resolution suspending the powers of the Secretary of the Treasury to contract the currency, prevailed by a vote of 128 to 52.

The House went into Committee of the whole on the Message. Pending the debate, the Reconstruction Committee, to which Stevens requested several points of the message to be referred, was denounced as an obstruction to reconstruction.

Stevens struggles hard against the turning tide, and excites admiration and pity. No one heeds the vindictive utterances of the worn out leader.

The Senate had no session.

THEIR PAY.

RICHMOND, Dec. 7—P. M.

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know a dissatisfied customer on her any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendations of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILLMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

DAILY SENTINEL.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1867.

MUSIC IN CAMP.

BY JOHN R. THOMPSON.

Two armies covered hill and plain,
Where Rappahannock's waters
Ran deeply crimsoned with the stain
Of battle's recent slaughters.

The summer clouds lay pitched like tents
In meads of heavenly azure,
And each dread gun of the elements
Slept in its lid embrazure.

The breeze so softly blew it made
No forest leaf to quiver,
And the smoke of the random cannonade
Rolled slowly from the river.

And now, where circling hills looked down,
With cannon grimly planted,
O'er listless camp and silent town
The golden sunset slanted.

When on the fervid air there came
A strain, now rich, now tender;
The music seemed itself aflame
With day's departing splendor.

A federal band, which, eve and morn,
Played measures brave and nimble,
Had just struck up with flute and horn
And lively clash of cymbal.

Down flocked the soldiers to the banks
Till, margined by its pebbles,
One wooded shore was blue with "Yanks,"
And one was gray with "Rebels."

Then all was still, and then the band
With movements light and tricksy,
Made stream and forest, hill and strand,
Reverberate with "Dixie."

The conscious stream, with burnished glow,
Went proudly o'er its pebbles,
But thrilled throughout its deepest flow
With yelling of the Rebels.

Again a pause, and then again
The trumpets pealed sonorous,
And Yankee Doodle was the strain
To which the shore gave chorus.

The laughing ripple shoreward flew
To kiss the shining pebbles—
Loud shrieked the swarming Boys in Blue
Defiance to the Rebels.

And yet once more the bugles sang
Above the stormy riot;
No shout upon the evening rang—
There reigned a holy quiet.

The sad, slow stream its noiseless tread
Poured o'er the glistening pebbles;
All silent now the Yankees stood
And silent stood the Rebels.

No unresponsive soul had heard
That plaintive note's appealing,
So deeply Home, Sweet Home had stirred
The hidden founts of feeling.

Or blue or gray the soldier sees,
As by the wand of fairy,
The cottage 'neath the live-oak trees,
The cabin by the prairie.

Or cold or warm his native skies
Bend in their beauty o'er him,
Seen through the tear mist in his eyes
His loved ones stand before him.

As fades the iris after rain
In April's tearful weather,
The vision vanished as the strain
And daylight died together;

But memory, waked by music's art,
Expressed in simplest numbers,
Subdued the sternest Yankee's heart,
Made light the Rebel's slumbers.

And fair the form of Music shines,
That bright, celestial creature,
Who still 'mid war's embattled lines
Gave this one touch of Nature.

The Albemarle Ghost.

THE MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED.

FURTHER PARTICULARS CONCERNING HIS MYSTERIOUS MAJESTY.

RESUME OF THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.]

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., Dec. 2, 1867.

The interest manifested in the mysterious manifestations at the residence of J. S. Moon, Esq., is still unabated. The report that the author of the disturbances has been discovered and arrested is utterly without foundation. For a period of nearly ten months Mr. Moon's residence has been occasionally haunted by the mysterious stranger or strangers; but it is unnecessary here to enter into a detail of the circumstances, as the Dispatch has already furnished its readers with the principal facts in the case.

The first questions now asked of any one coming from Mr. Moon's neighborhood are, "What is the news from Mr. Moon's? Was the rogue there last night?" His last decided demonstration was on last Tuesday night, when he threw a few stones at the house. The cause of his suspending his operations for so long a time is supposed to be the fact that he has recently had special reasons to fear detection. What these reasons are it would not now be prudent to disclose. To publish them might lessen the chances of detecting the bold perpetrators of these singular annoyances. Besides, suspicion may now rest on an innocent man.

It is certainly a very strange affair. We call "the thing" a rogue; and yet, if a rogue at all, he is only a rogue in a very small way. He has had many opportunities to take things of value, but one or two pounds of sugar and coffee, a few small articles of clothing, and two or three loads of powder and shot, are all that he is supposed to have taken. It is out of the question to suppose that he wishes to do Mr. Moon a personal injury, as he might do this at any time. Nor yet is it probable that he is influenced by feelings of hostility toward any member of the family. That he should expose his life night after night simply "for the fun of the thing" is almost inconceivable. What then, can be his motive? The future may reveal.

Those who have had the best opportunities of knowing all the facts of the case suppose that at least three persons have been engaged in it. Only one, however, has ever been seen at a time. There is a tall figure and a low figure, and another of which nothing is known. The tall figure, we believe, is the most daring. He is specially noted for throwing lights about. These lights are of two kinds. One is an ordinary light, which might be thrown from any lamp or lantern, and the other is described as of a very singular character. It comes into a room through a thick curtain, and shows itself in a round spot not much larger than a silver dollar, illuminating only the spot upon which it rests. It does not remain long in one place, but dances about with the utmost agility. A lady who has seen it frequently remarked that it is the most curious light she ever saw, impressing her with the belief that it was supernatural. These lights are thrown into persons' faces, and never fail to blind them for the time.

That "the thing" should have escaped detection and injury, is a matter of great surprise. Many of the gentlemen who have watched for him are men of tried coolness and courage; and some of those who have shot at him are both brave men and excellent marksmen. One, we know, as reliable a man as ever guarded a picket post, had a fine at him at short range, but the shot was without effect. The supposition, however, that all the guards thought "the thing" a ghost is incorrect. Whatever they might have thought before, they are inclined to believe that he is a man, since he fired at Mrs. Moon's sister. Spiritual agencies do not use such carnal weapons as powder and ball. He has been shot at some twenty times, and, so far as known, has never received the slightest hurt. Some who have shot at him have thought they heard him laugh aloud as he ran off.

It has now been more than two months since "the thing" has been visiting Mr. Moon's premises regularly night after night. It made occasional visits all through the spring and summer. It has rocked his house, thrown strange lights into his windows, battered his doors, broken his window glass, got upon his house, rattled his door locks, and played sundry other pranks, even while the house and yard were well guarded, and yet has failed to be caught. We hazard nothing in saying it is the boldest, silliest, most successful thing of the kind that ever was played in Virginia.

Rock Spring Academy, Orange County N. C.

THE THIRD SESSION of this School, under the entire management of the Principal, a graduate of Wake Forest College, N. C., will commence on the 10th of January next, and close the first of June following.

Students are prepared for Wake Forest, or any other College, or for the active business of life

Tuition, payable half in advance, from $10 to $25 per session according to course; young Ministers pay one-half, Minister's sons and disabled Confederate soldiers two-thirds the usual rates.

FIFTY DOLLARS IN ADVANCE pay for board, furnished room, fuel and washing per session, or $25 for half; otherwise $12 per month is the rate. Students from a distance board in the family with the Principal. Facilities for boarding one's self, at moderate price.

That both moral interest and intellectual advancement may be promoted, decided discipline will be enforced, to instil moral principles as well as habits of application.

Location (8 miles Southwest of Hillsboro', on N. C. R. R., from which point conveyance is furnished on notice,) is healthful, in a neighborhood whose moral intelligence, intelligence, and other advantages render it desirable for a school.

Address, for further particulars or Circular, the Principal, at Rock Spring, N. C.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

Send for a Circular.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

A large Stock of the most celebrated manufacture of Gent's and Ladies' Boots and Shoes, Gaiters, &c.

Now is the time for you to lay in your supply of Goods, for they are advancing North. I am selling at cost. Come one and all and examine my stock and prices. Do not be induced to buy goods elsewhere until you give me a call. When I say I am selling at Cost I mean just what I say—I do not for the purpose of humbugging you.

Merchants in the City whose stocks need replenishing would do well to call soon and make their purchases.

At 48 Fayetteville St.,
6 doors North of Market Square

IN THE MILLINERY LINE.

MRS. OETTINGER is again ready to serve her friends and patrons. She has just returned from the Northern Markets, well posted, and with one of the nicest and largest stocks of that ever was brought to this town. She has something to suit all classes.

MILLINERY,

Trimmed Hats from 50 cents up.

Bonnets made of silks, velvets, straw and gimp.

Velvets, Silks and Satins of every color and shade.

In Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers and Ornaments, her stock cannot be excelled.

It is useless to speak of her good taste in trimming Bonnets and Hats. She is too well known for that among the Ladies, far and near. So just call before you buy elsewhere, at

MRS. OETTINGER'S.
(You all know where she lives.)

P. S.—She will have an opening on Thursday, 10th of October.

October 3—3m.
